CRUDE OIL AS A DUST LAYER.

George H. Foote Is Making An Experiment on Volusia Avenue.

EFFECTS WATCHED WITH INTEREST

Whether Automobile Races Will Be Held on Daytona Beach

WILL BE DECIDED TONIGHT,

In March.

CASH PRIZES TO BE GIVEN.

At the meeting of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association to be held this evening the question of races will probably be definitely determined upon. Frederick D. Stidham of New York, the representative of W. J. Morgan, the race promoter, is in the city and will be present at the club meeting. Mr. Stidham is here in response to an invitation from the club to Mr. Morgan to come or send a representative to go over the race situation. The tentative plans are to give a very elaborate racing program the latter part of March and to offer large cash prizes to drivers who compete.

About $5000 will be required to pull off the event, and it is probable that arrangements will be concluded this evening to raise that amount.

Whatever the result, Mr. Foote has the thanks of the public for his public spirit in taking upon himself the trouble and expense of the experiment.

SOULFUL STRAINS FOR MUSIC LOVING EARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Burden Treat
Friends to Choice Classic Selections.

A few convivial spirits, about thirty in number, gathered at Mr. Burden's Magnolia avenue residence last night and thoroughly enjoyed a variety of different sorts of materials enter into the composition of road building in different parts of the country that an oil coating which proves useful in one section will prove to be practically useless on a different composition of road material in another place.

Hence it is that the public will watch with interest the effects of crude oil on the shell conglomerate, which predominates as a street material in Daytona.

Mr. Foote is hopeful of at least two very desirable results: it ought to make the street impervious to rain and cause it to pack into a smooth, solid surface. If it does this it will eliminate the dust nuisance.

Whatever the result, Mr. Foote has the thanks of the public for his public spirit in taking upon himself the trouble and expense of the experiment.

ROLLINS COLLEGE VS. UNIVERSITY OF HAVANA.

The Rollins Team Give Cubans a Striking Exhibition of Speed and Skill.

The Daily News told in a recent issue of the Christmas invasion of Cuba by the Rollins College football team and now can give the gratifying news that they outplayed the Cubans at every turn.

They quit the field with victory written high upon their banner, score 5 to 0 in favor of Rollins.

Messrs. Walter Rogers and Roy Barnes, Daytona boys, played with Rollins and helped to achieve the decisive victory.

NAVIGATORS, BEWARE!

HAULOVER OBSTRUCTION.

H. H. Raymond Runs Afoot of a Sunken Barge, Which Ought to Be Removed.

H. H. Raymond and wife are on a cruise south and write a warning note from Titusville which it is well enough for any who contemplate a trip down the coast this winter to make a note of.

Following is the warning: "There is an old sunken barge about forty feet long lying about the middle of the channel and about one hundred yards from the shore in the lagoon side of the Haulover canal and there is absolutely nothing to indicate its location."

An experienced sailor as myself (Raymond will hang up on every old hull and oyster bank between Titusville and Miami—City Ed.) I struck it hard and came near breaking everything to pieces so you can imagine what would likely happen to one of the northern sailors. A local in your paper calling attention to the obstruction might save some one a lot of trouble if not serious loss.

A squadron of battleships sailed this morning to patrol the devastated coast region.

Twenty-one towns are known to have been practically destroyed and hundreds of vessels and fishing boats and two steamships are known to have been lost.

Much looting is going on, and clashes between soldiers and looters are occurring hourly.

In several of the wrecked towns the soldiers are driving the looters to the mountains.

Pope Desired to Aid.

(By United Press.)

ROME, Dec. 29.—Pope Pius X, on receiving news of the extent of the earthquake in southwestern Italy, today declared that his place was among the sufferers, and gave orders to arrange for the journey to Calabria. It was only after he was strongly urged to abandon the idea by his medical advisers, and all of the cardinals that the Pope was dissuaded from the journey.

75,000 PERSONS KILLED BY EARTHQUAKE AND TIDAL WAVE IN ITALY.

(By United Press.)

NAPLES, Dec. 29.—Reports coming in from the region visited by the earthquake yesterday are momentarily increasing the horror of the catastrophe.

The Tribune today states that the victims number between 65,000 and 75,000, and twice that number injured.

The complete destruction of Messina, the second city of Sicily, is confirmed.

Thousands of persons are reported dead in Messina and it is feared that hundreds are still alive under the ruins and doomed to perish in the flames which are sweeping what is left of the city.

The region immediately across the Strait of Messina met a like fate. Out of a population of 25,000 eighty percent are dead.

Martial law has been declared.

Most of the towns on the strait have been wiped out.

The destruction of Messina was due in great part to a tidal wave more than the earthquake.

High volcanic activity is noticed today at Mount Etna and an eruption is feared.

Five thousand troops have been sent to Messina and twice that number are held in readiness.

A squadron of battleships sailed this morning to patrol the devastated coast region.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership existing between J. C. Butler and C. A. Kenney has been dissolved, and the undersigned will continue the business, and pay all claims against the firm. Please present all bills by the first of January.

G. A. FOYE BUYS PROPERTY.

G. A. Foye has purchased the property at the corner of Palmetto and Live Oak avenues, which he has been occupying with his livery business. This is the east half of the J. C. Coombs place, and it is rumored that the Ridgewood avenue corner is being negotiated for.

This property was acquired by Coombs, a colored man, when Daytona was in its infancy, and has been held by the family ever since.

CONSUL MAY BE VICTIM.

(By United Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 29.—No word has been received by the family of Dr. Arthur Cheney, Consul at Messina, and it is feared he may have lost his life in the disaster.

The practice was at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, and out of 65 shots Mr. Cheney missed only two chances, making the highest average. In the skirmish run of twenty shots he made 18 hits.

This was with the new Springfield army rifle which has a range of 1000 yards.

CARD OF THANKS.

(By United Press.)

S. H. Gove and A. H. Carter wish to thank their friends and others for their valuable services in saving property from the Gow shop destroyed by fire Sunday morning.

PEACE NOT GUILTY.

(By United Press.)

MEDIA, Pa., Dec. 29.—Mrs. J. Clayton Erb and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Beisel, charged jointly and severally with the murder of Capt. J. Clayton Erb, a powerful politician and former private secretary to "Boss" Durham, plead not guilty today, and the work of selecting a jury in the case began.

VENEZUELAN SCRAPPING.

(By United Press.)

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Dec. 29.—News of an engagement at Macure between armed adherents of Castro and officers of the new Venezuelan president, Gomez, in which about 20 were killed and 50 wounded, was brought here today by the Venezuelan gunboat Miranda.

John Case arrived from his home in New York State to join his wife, who has been at their winter home on Volusia avenue for several weeks.

News

MEADEVILLE, Dec. 26.—The Seabreeze

Hunting Club has at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butler, 1000 Broadway, an attractive new building, a modern club house, with a lounge, billiard room, a large dining room, a library, a smoking room, a porch, a deck, and a large swimming pool.

Large, comfortable, hunting gear rooms are the newest and most popular feature of the club. The members will be invited to another meeting at the club house on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butler have given great attention to the comfort of their members, and the club house is a credit to the town. The members will be invited to another meeting at the club house on Saturday evening.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls lit by joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation,
artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom,
gamey food fishes in countless numbers
beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck
and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed picanouch
a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load
he snatched from the water.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the arrow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked liveoaks extend their great festoons of Spanish moss
sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ethereal drapes, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty
from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings
but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting,
miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in disturbed pupils and pried eyes.

For every visitor with a spare "go-ber" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting fancy, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues

predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are afame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Varietys is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their bunches of luscious golden globes, which

for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable

qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown."

Here is where world's records for speed

are broken with every recurring season.

Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian

water from the thousand flowing wells.

It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower

up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees

of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida

sunshine is free, the balmy ocean

breezes are free, the birds and squirrels

and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin

to the auto and bob and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

The Popular Coral.

The dealer held up two strings of coral. They were of equal size, but one was dark and dull in hue, the other beautifully pink and translucent.

"The dark one," he said, "is worth

50 cents; the pink one is worth $500.

That is what makes coral so popular.

It suits all pocketbooks. All over the world it goes. These strings of rough,

uncut beads are for the dead of India.

They are put round the necks of the bodies about to be burned in the ghats.

These large and blood red beads go to Africa. They are much liked by the natives, whose dark skins they perfectly suit. Here are a lot of coral

Did the Best He Knew.
Gordie Horn was a character well known among the country folk of the Seven Highlands twenty-five years ago. He belonged to a class rather hard to classify, for he was neither a tramp nor a farm hand, although frequently following the habits of both. Wandering from farm to farm, the greater part of the time he was kindly treated and hospitably entertained generally. While he was a man of unusual strength, he was mentally weak and exceedingly lazy.

"He's a gile o' child, though slow in the upstack" (understanding), was the way a good many described him.

One day he arrived at his friend the doctor's and complained of a severe pain in his breast. The doctor bandaged him a plaster, with instructions to put it on his chest without delay. Gordie gave him one of his knowing looks and took his departure. The doctor met him a few days later and inquired how he was feeling now. Gordie replied, "Not better." "Did you do as I told you with the plaster?" the doctor went on.

"Well, no, not exactly. I done the best I could. I didn't have a chest, see. I stuck it on my back" (had back).

An Expensive Dollar.
Not long ago in this town a kind friend of the family gave one of the kids a dollar. Of course it was too much to let the kid go out and spend for candy and gum, so it was religiously put up on the sideboard or some other safe place to be kept—just for what the deposit said. In about a week the juvenile owner of the big round coin remarked at the breakfast table, "Papa, mamma spent my dollar yesterday." The head of the house took the hint and tucked up another dollar, which, like its predecessor, was placed in a good safe place to keep.

During the next month by a carefully calculated record which he kept on his cuff he repaid this elusive dollar just thirteen times. So at the end of the month you will not be surprised to learn that our friend sent the donor of the original dollar this curt note:

Dear Sir—Inclosed you will find a check for $1. It's the dollar you gave our youngster. I return it simply to avoid bankruptcy. Although it has cost me something between time and trouble.

—Lamb (Mo) Democrat

Dollar Fish.
"Have you any dollar fish here?" a woman asked of one of the attendants at the aquarium.

While the question may seem curious, it was really very simple, for the dollar fish is only a young moonfish.

The moonfish is a curious but beautiful creature, almost round in shape and extremely thin and having the liveliest of pearl sides. It swims on edge, so that it always presents its sides of pearl to view. It takes its name from its shape and because further, in color it suggests the silver moon.

Young moonfish of the size of a standard silver dollar—and they are scarcely any thicker—are called dollar fishes because of their resemblance to that coin in size and shape and color and the woman making the inquiry about dollar fishes was duly informed that there was none in the tanks at the present time, but that they did have them occasionally—New York Sun.

Three Sabbathas Each Week in Tangier.
Morocco is a country of many Sabbathas. The first three days I spent in Tangier were all Sabbathas. Arriving on a Thursday night, the next day was Friday, the No-Moslem Sabbath, which was followed by the Jewish Sabbath—the Christian element in Tangier is considerable and strict in religious observance and that is true by the Christian Sunday. Subsequent comparison, however, revealed little difference between any days of the week. On the Mohammedan Sabbath a black flag is hoisted on the minarets at the prayer of dawn, instead of the white flag that announces the time of devotions on other days. It remains up until the middle of the forenoon, by which time everybody is supposed to have found out what day it is—New York Post.

The Word "Charlatan."
"Charlatan," says a writer in the London Chronicle, "is companion to 'quack' in our vocabulary, and of this word the origin is certainly Indian. It is 'charlatan' merely a charlatan, and describes the traveling doctor in his cart who used to offer in an overwhelming manner of take his pills to villagers in the market place. He was a dentist as well as a physician and wrenched out the tooth in public. The genus is not yet entirely extinct."

A Word Breaker.
"Fine looking old gentleman."
"Yes, but he was never known to give a man his word that he did not break it."
"Unhonest, eh?"
"Nope; he swindles."—Houston Post.

Dignity and Ignorance.
"So you have decided to call in another doctor?"
"I have," was the reply. "The absurdity of the man prescribing linseed oil and mustard plasters for people of our position."

A Noble Parent.
In writing a sketch of Washington a pupil ended her essay by saying "Washington married a famous belle, Martha Cossia, and in due time became the Father of His Country."—Delinquent.

Extract of Knowledge.
An article on "Entertainment Boxes" in a periodical called Normal Echoes contains some good "bowlers." They are none the less interesting for coming from students in training for teachers. A criticism of William Blake that "as a child he was precocious in poetry, but in later years it developed into dogmatism," is a lesson in the art of being inaccurate, while the remark that "the works of the time were mostly satyrs" is quaint, though obvious. Of course there is bungling over proper names. There is nothing, indeed, so good as the description of Cromwell as "a man with coarse features and having a large red nose, with deep religious convictions beneath" or the case of the "taught man" who, having by way of exception attended church, admitted to the rector's wife that he had benefited, for he had learned that Sodom and Gomorrah were two cities, whereas he had always thought they were men and wife.—Manchester Guardian.

Fat and Disease.
If the Medical Record is right, man is pursuing in the matter of bodily weight what is bad for him, a common trick, and women strive for a physical ideal that would mean long life if achieved, something rare indeed for women to do. Most men struggle to be fat. Most women diet to be lean. Dr. Brandreth Symonds draws from a study of life insurance weights that people past the age of thirty live longer if below normal weight than they do if at or above standard. Heart disease is as to be among the underfat as it is common with the heavy folk, and this is true also of Bright's disease, apoplexy, paralysis, cerebral congestions and cirrhosis of the liver. Only in pneumonia and tuberculosis do the underweights carry a greater risk. In all the cases which he examined Dr. Symonds found not a single fat man who reached the age of eighty years, while forty-four short weights passed this mark.

The Best Price.
A titled Englishman while in New York talked most enterprisingly to a group of ladies about ancestral pride. "Ancestral pride is an excellent thing," he said, "but there are better things. We have long felt in Great Britain that there are better things. I heard the sentiment rather neatly expressed last season by a duchess. Hers is a great family, but she was talking to a young marquis whose family is incomparably greater. He is a rather worthless, lazy, dissipated young marquis, and he boasted to the duchess about his people.

"I am very proud of my ancestry, you know he ended.

"Ten," said the duchess, "and you have cause to be, but I wonder how your ancestry would stand over you?"

Half a League.
The class had just finished reciting "The Charge of the Light Brigade." "Now," said the teacher, "can any one present tell me the meaning of those words, 'Half a league'?" Up shot the hand of Thomas Jones, aged eleven, football captain and indomitable fullback.

"Please, sir, it means they couldn't get enough clubs to make up the full length." Some one had bounded—London Answers.

Not a Bargain.
"Do you think that Miss Kidder was having fun with me?" asked Chawille. "Wed, old chap, give me the details," was A. W. Burton's response.

"You see, I had my bull terrier with me, and I said to her, 'That dog knows as much as I do.' And she said, 'Don't you think $4.50 was too much to pay for him?'"—Cleveland Leader.

Owing to ill health and press of other business interests J. L. Odum has turned over his meat market on North Beach street to Messrs. John and Leonard for the season. John L. Foer, who has been with Mr. Odum for the past two years, will continue in his position with the new management.

There seems to be an epidemic of colds and sore throat. The city's affable postmaster and postmistress, W. C. Smith and wife, have suffered from the combination affliction but did not abandon their posts of duty.
